Présentation

Code RNCP : 35913

The curriculum offers a rigorous training programme, covering the foundations of finance during the first year and offering students the option to specialise in one of three fields during the second year (Corporate Finance, Financial Markets and Risk Evaluation, Finance and Information Technology). It also offers the opportunity to get a double degree with our partner HEC Liège (Master 2 Corporate Finance - double degree HEC Liège, Master 2 Financial Market and Risk Evaluation - double degree HEC Liège).

This first year of the Master in Finance allows students to build a strong conceptual framework in order to analyse financial issues. The second year of the programme builds on this by developing practical applications.

At the end of the first year, students will undertake a compulsory internship in a company during 2 to 5 months.

At the end of the second year, a 6-month internship is mandatory.

Objectifs

By the end of the Master in Finance, students will be able to:

- * Know basic institutional and regulatory framework of finance in organisations and markets ;

- * Understand the conceptual foundations and analytical methods in finance ;
- * Apply analytical methods in finance to solve practical problems encountered by corporations, financial institutions and markets ;
- * Critically assess the drivers of contemporary financial issues ;
- * Incorporate ethical dimension and implications for sustainability in financial decisions ;
- * Communicate effectively in oral and written form ;
- * Solve complex problems.
